

Query a Digital Music Store Database

Questions Insights

Q1. How many tracks per top 5 albums?

The chart highlights the top 5 albums with the highest number of tracks in the database. As shown, Greatest Hits comes at the top of the list with 57 tracks, followed by Minha Historia with 34, then Unplugged, and two seasons of Lost.

This insight can help identify which albums offer the most extensive listening experience for customers.

Q2. What are the top 5 genres by total sales?

This chart shows the top 5 genres generated from total track sales. As shown Rock leads on top, followed by Latin and Metal with TV Shows at latest.

This information is useful for identifying the most profitable genres and tailoring marketing strategies accordingly.

Q.3 Which Top 5 customers spent the most money overall?

This chart lists the top 5 customers who have spent a lot in the store. Helena Holý spent the most with 49.62 in purchases. Hugh O'Reilly on the other hand comes last with only 45.62.

This insight might help in identifying high-value clients for potential loyalty programs or targeted offers.

Q.4 Which support representative has the most customers assigned?

The chart identifies which support representative manages the most customers. Jane Peacock handles the highest number of customers which is 21 customer, slightly more than Margaret Park and Steve Johnson.

This insight may reflect customer service efficiency across the support team.